

We welcome all Blood Brothers to join us for our first gathering of the year on January 30, 2010 in Concord.

This event is open to all adult men (18 years of age and older) affected by a bleeding disorder and hotel accommodations will be provided on Saturday night for those traveling in from outside the region. Bring a fellow brother and come on down!

We also welcome wives and significant others to attend. There will be a separate “Rap Session” for this group to share their thoughts and feelings that will be moderated by Sharon Ingram, wife of Blood Brother and HNC Board Member, Warren Ingram.

There is no fee to attend the event. Meals and rooms will be provided. Please register by January 26, 2010 to hold your reservation.

Guest Speakers

Penni Potter Perez, Esq. – PSI ACCESS Program

Founded by the late Rachel Warner in 1989, Advocating for Chronic Conditions, Entitlements and Social Services (ACCESS) is a program dedicated to helping find solutions to the social and economic problems that confront families facing chronic conditions. Rachel devoted the last six years of her life to exploring the paths to benefits and services available for chronically ill patients, as well as advocating on behalf of this community. Patient Services, Inc and its staff build upon her legacy by continuing to provide the ACCESS Program.

Margarita Lizarra – United Family Services

The way you spend, save, borrow and budget determines how you manage your money. The Budgeting and Money Management program is designed to help individuals and families take the necessary steps to achieve financial goals and set a budget. Ms. Lizarra, a trained counselor, will offer options and suggestions that allow you to use your money in the best way possible.

The hotel is located across from Concord Mills Mall and a Coupon Book will be provided

Concord Mills features over 200 stores including manufacturer and retail outlets, off-price retailers, and unique specialty stores. A festive food court, a NASCAR themed fun park, a 24-screen AMC theatre and North Carolina’s only Bass Pro Shops are also part of the shopping adventure. The center is further enhanced by an oval racetrack layout and dynamic architecture reflective of the Carolinas.

If you have reserved a space, but later learn that you will be unable to attend, please let us know. It's important that we provide an accurate advance count to our vendors, who must charge us on a per-person basis. It will also help us better accommodate last-minute registrants for whom we might otherwise not have enough space reserved. Thank you!
